

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SCOTT JOHNSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

PARAMJIT KAUR, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 21-cv-08204-SVK

ORDER RE RESPONSES TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On July 28, 2022, Plaintiff filed a notice stating that this case had settled and that Plaintiff expected the settlement would be consummated within 60 days and a dismissal would be filed. Dkt. 28. The Court issued an Order to Show Cause re Settlement (“OSC”), with the hearing set for September 27, 2022. Dkt. 29. At Plaintiff’s request, the OSC hearing has been continued twice. Dkt. 31, 33. In both instances, Plaintiff filed a response to the OSC stating that the settlement agreement had been signed. Dkt. 30, 32. In Plaintiff’s September 12, 2022 response to OSC, Plaintiff stated that he expected to file a dismissal within 60 days. Dkt. 30. In Plaintiff’s October 10, 2022 response to OSC, Plaintiff stated that the case would be ripe for dismissal “in approximately thirty (30) days from updated show cause/dismissal deadline of October 18, 2022.” Dkt. 32. The OSC hearing is currently scheduled for November 22, 2022. See Dkt. 33.

On November 18, 2022, Plaintiff filed a response to OSC stating that he “anticipates filing a dismissal within the coming sixty (60) days.” Dkt. 35. Plaintiff’s latest response to OSC is inadequate because it inconsistent with his previous estimates of when a dismissal will be filed and does not explain the shifting timeline. However, Defendant’s response to OSC states that the last settlement payment was mailed to Plaintiff’s counsel on November 18, 2022. Dkt. 36. Accordingly, the Court will grant one final continuance of the OSC to December 13, 2022 at 10:00 a.m. A dismissal is due by December 6, 2022.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 21, 2022
